ABSTRACT

The paper describes the typing instructions for preparation of papers for the 20th Scandinavian International Conference on Fluid Power (SICFP'27) in Tampere 2027. Please note that this sheet follows the instructions given below, as an example. Document template is available at conference website <https://events.tuni.fi/sicfp2027/>. If possible, use this template. Only use the text styles defined on the template so there is no need to use extra line breaks.

KEYWORDS: SICFP27, layout, typing instructions

1. INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Manuscripts, written in English, should be submitted using the link on the conference web site www.tut.fi/sicfp. The papers should be delivered in Adobe portable document format (.pdf). The recommended length of the article is 8-12 pages.

The body text style is sicfp_bodytext. The font is Arial 10 pt, both margins justified. Line spacing is 1.2 and there is 6 pt space after the paragraph. The first page must bear the title of the conference (Arial, Italic, font size 8, centered), the title of the paper (Arial 14 pt, All Caps, space before 48 pt, space after 24 pt), the name(s) of the author(s), the name and address of the institution where the work was carried out and permanent address(es) of the author(s) where they differ from the institution address (Arial 10 pt, no space before or after). All should be in the center and on the top of the first page.

1.1. Abstract

Each paper should be preceded by an abstract, the maximum length of that is 15 typed lines. After abstract there is a line of keywords using style sicfp_keywords (Arial space before 10 pt, space after 48 pt).

1.2. Headings

Principal headings should be numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc. (sicfp_heading1) Subheadings should be numbered 1.1, 1.2, etc (sicfp_heading2) and 1.1.1, 1.1.2, etc. (sicfp_heading3). First level heading has before 36 pt space and after 12 pt, second and third level before 24 pt and after 12 pt.

1.3. Formulas and Equations

Formulas and equations must be clearly written, each on its own line, well separated from the text. They should be numbered consecutively through the whole text with the numbering in parenthesis to the right of the formula.

1.4. Units

SI units should be used in the articles. However, liter/min and bar are exceptions and those are acceptable units.

1.5. Figures and Tables

Include your figures and tables at the appropriate place in the paper. Do not put them all at the end! Figures and tables should be numbered separately and consecutively with Arabic numerals. Use at least 300 dpi resolution for figures.

For tables use style sicfp_table (Centered, Space after 12 pt) and for table captions above the table use style sicfp_table_caption (Centered, Italic, space after 3 pt).

For figures use style sicfp_picture (Centered, Space before 12 pt, after: 3 pt) and for figure captions under the figure use style sicfp_picture_caption (Centered, Italic, space after 6 pt).

1.6. Lists

Two kind of lists can be used: bulleted (style: sicfp_list_bulleted) and numbered (style: sicfp_list_numbered).

- Bulleted list: Don't add space between the bulleted lines, after bulleted list 6 pt space.
- 1. Numbered list: Don't add space between the numbered lines, after numbered list 6 pt space.

1.7. References

References should be numbered consecutively, in order of first appearance in the text. The reference number is recommended to be put within square brackets [1] on the text line.

2. COPYRIGHTS

We require all authors to consent that all rights of copyright of submitted papers for this conference are transferred to Tampere University of Technology. This consent is validated by signature on the copyright form, which should be delivered to the Conference Secretariat. Also, it is the liability of the authors to make sure that any of the materials they submit to this conference do not violate the rights of copyright of any third party.
