

Week 1.

Date and time	Student	Paper title	Paper nr.
13.8.	University-industry interaction (commentator Gregersen)
13:15-14:00	Sidath Alwis	Understanding university-industry linkages of advanced and emerging economies: deliberate and dedicated approaches, historical specificities	1.
14:15-15:00	Israel Marcellino	The role of universities in Brazilian local innovative and productive systems	2.
15:00-15:45	Bolanle Adewusi	A study of research, development and innovation outputs in information and communications technology in selected Nigerian knowledge institutions	3.
14.8.	Pharmaceutical industry and innovation policy (Jurowetski)
13:15-14:00	Nadia Ahmadouche	Actors of innovations, instrument policy, and activities of innovation for adapted innovation policy in developing countries	4.
14:15-15:00	Igor Bueno	Instruments of innovation policy: An analysis of the supply and demand support mechanisms to encourage the Brazilian pharmaceutical industry	5.
15.8.	Long-term transitions of innovation systems (Lorenz)
11:00-11:45	Alejandro Vignolo	The position of Uruguayan and Argentinian workers facing technological changes: An overview from the socio-technical approach from two activity sectors during the period 2003-2018	6.
13:15-14:00	Jose Ponce Sanchez	Development paths in Latin America and OECD 1970-2015: A panel cointegration analysis and their relationship with the transit to a knowledge-based bioeconomy	7.
15.8.	Agroinnovation (Kingiri)
14:15-15:00	Faith Mugisha Ahabyoona	Strengthening credit facilitation decisions for financial performance: the case of agricultural cooperatives in Uganda	8.

Week 2.

19.8.	Innovation and renewable energy (Lema)
13:15-14:00	Ebenaezer Appies	Fostering a just energy transition with community cooperatives in South Africa	9.
14:15-15:00	Stuti Haldar	A multi-level perspective to conceptualizing “green” entrepreneurship – Evidences from renewable energy sector in India	10.
15:00-15:45	Joni Karjalainen	The innovation capabilities of off-grid solar energy firms in Kenya and Tanzania – an enquiry of long-term implications.	11.
20.8	Sector/cluster approaches on innovation (Kautonen)
11.00-11.45	Temesgen Getachew Atilaw	Significance of non-R&D innovation capability for sustainable competitiveness of light (low-tech) manufacturing for the case of Ethiopian apparel industry	12.
13.15-14.00	Mahvish Khaskhely	A quest for the indicators for viable industrial clusters	13.
14.15-15.00	Mahbubeh Nourizadeh	Innovation behavior of technology-based-firms in the context of developing countries: Evidence from Iran	14.
15.00-15:45	Sadhna Sahu	Sectoral systems of innovation for sustainability: A case study of marine fisheries industry of Kerala	15.
21.8	Grassroots and rural innovation systems (Chaminade)
9.15-10.00	Chandra Shekar	Innovation in the informal sector: Evidence from urban manufacturing enterprises in India	16.
10.00-10.45	Tomás Carrozza	From the innovation to the territory: the process of agribusiness expansion in Argentina and its relations with public policy	17.
11.00-11.45	Anjali Lakum	The sociology of expectations and innovations: Exploring success and failure of grassroots innovations in India	18.
13.15-14.00	Parfait Yongabo	Innovation trajectories: Point of departure and pathways in the Rwandan agriculture system	19.
22.8	National innovation policies and responsible innovation (Nieminen)
10.00-10.45	Rodrigo Cevallos	National policy councils for science and innovation: a scheme for structural definition and implementation	20.
11.00-11.45	Jyoti	Sustainable biofuels production in India: A responsible innovation perspective	21.